Descriere: The objective of the procurement is to get access to efficient deliveries of various printed products. The procurement shall contribute to covering the contracting authority's need for printing and completion of publications, brochures, books, table cards, invitations and other similar products. The procurement consists of two framework agreements: Printing and design services and foliation with imprints, gold and silver (the Norwegian national weapon) - printing services. The framework agreement for printing and design services. The framework agreement for printing and design services shall contribute to covering the customer's need for printing and completion of publications, brochures and books etc., including, styling, design and make-up. DSS has an in-house printing office (Depmedia) that mostly covers the need for printed matter for ministries. The framework agreement for printing and design services will apply for assignments where Depmedia either does not have the capacity or for other reasons cannot take the assignment. Framework agreement Foliation with imprint, gold and silver (the Norwegian Coat of Arms) - printing services. This framework agreement shall cover the customer's need for products in smaller formats, with (or without) foliation with gold and silver, such as table cards, invitations etc.
